Presenters

- Mary Jane Dykeman is a partner at DDO Health Law in Toronto. With CAMH’s Michele Warner, she teaches Mental Health Law for Children and Youth program. Mary Jane’s passion is to transform how health care providers are trained, and to expand DDO’s reach to put health law basics in the hands of patients and their caregivers.

- Lisa Feldstein is the Principal Lawyer at Lisa Feldstein Law Office. She is a health lawyer with a focus on which includes advising family caregivers on guardianship, powers of attorney, and mental health law.

- Susan Beayni, Coordinator of Family Services at Partners for Planning. Through lived experience with her 33-year-old daughter, Rebecca, Susan has advocated for and supported individuals and their families to plan for a good life while gathering a network to assist in implementing their plan. Susan lives in Toronto and is one of the founders of ‘Partners for Planning’.

- Brendon D. Pooran is the founding lawyer at Pooran Law Professional Corporation. He regularly provides advice to individuals, families, organizations and government in the areas of: wills & estates planning, and disability law. He is a founding director of PLAN Toronto, now ‘Partners in Planning’ and is a lawyer member on the Ontario Consent and Capacity Board.
