

Saturday, May 14, 2016

9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Learning Objectives:

- 1. To better understand patient, family, clinical and ethical perceptions of circle care.*
- 2. To demystify the definition of "Circle of Care".*
- 3. To review a case and collectively unpack best practice regarding patient, family, clinician communication.*

Presenters:

Judi Bickle, B.A., CIPP/C, CIPM – Judi Bickle is the Leader, Privacy and Access in Enterprise Risk Management at Ontario Shores Centre for Mental Health Sciences. Judi is a Certified Information Privacy Professional/Canada (CIPP/C) and a Certified Information Privacy Manager (CIPM) with the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP).

John Dick, Patient Council Coordinator – John Dick is the Coordinator of the Patient Council at Ontario Shores Centre for Mental Health Sciences, which provides a consumers perspective on systemic issues and of services offered at Ontario Shores. John is one of the founding members of the Patient Council that was established in 1993.

Pat Hofsepien, Family Council Chair – Pat Hofsepien is the Chair of the Ontario Shores Family Council. As Chair of the Family Council, Pat helps to provide the perspective of the family member on systemic issues and services offered at Ontario Shores. Pat is an active volunteer in the Family Resource Centre and helps provide peer support to loved ones. Pat is one of the founding members of the Family Council that was initiated in 2009.

Please Register by Friday, May 13, 2016

<https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/caregiver-event-circle-of-care-whos-in-whos-out-registration-24929144743>

You may register with the link above, or by phone: 905-430-4055, ext. 6970.

Complimentary parking for the event.

LOCATION:

Ontario Shores Centre for Mental Health Sciences
Lecture Theatre (Main Building - Building 5, Level 2)
700 Gordon Street
Whitby, ON L1N 5S9

For more information, please contact
The Family Resource Centre:

Phone: 905.430.4055 Ext. 6970
Email: familyresourcecentre@ontarioshores.ca